Bob Jones University

1995 Bible Con

Have you ever heard the expression, "Bloom where you're planted?" It usually accompanies a picture of a beautiful flower struggling to grow in a dry, desert region. It's not always easy to bloom and brighten up your corner of life when the soil seems barren and lonely. If you are thirsty for some refreshing, spiritual rain, join us this year at Bob Jones University's annual Bible Conference for a week of spirit-reviving preaching. Six guest speakers will be preaching, as well as eight members of the faculty and administration. There are also a number of interesting exhibits to see and activities to participate in with thousands of other Christians. Come get refreshed and let your faith blossom!

Dear Friend:

Bible Conference is one of my favorite weeks of the year. It's spring, and the trees and flowers are budding and blooming on campus. It's a time when things that seemed dead come alive again. If you feel like you've been experiencing a spiritual winter, come visit us at Bible Conference this year. During this week of preaching, the Savior is exalted, the Scripture is expounded with the life-giving power of the Holy Spirit, and the spiritual Christian goes away loving Christ with new fervor and joy.

The fellowship of the saints is also an important part of the week. This will be a time to meet new friends and enjoy the fellowship of longtime friends, while you rub shoulders with some of the finest young people in America.

Don't continue to live in winter when you could rejoice in the renewal of spring. We look forward to seeing you and will do our best to make you feel at home during your stay.

Sincerely,

Bob Jones III
